Bus Drivers

BACK ROW: Rollo Kauffman, Alvin Nuesbaum, Noble Nuesbaum.
FRONT ROW: Quinton Yoder, Tobe Yoder, Bill Long.

Again this year we have a splendid group of bus drivers, who were an absolute necessity to get the pupils from the country to the school. Some of them also drove the fans and players to the basketball games and other school functions.

We are extremely grateful for the services that these drivers render to us.

Senior Class History

On September 3, 1940, forty-six rather bewildered children entered the doors of the new school for the first time. Miss Viola Sherk had a hard time convincing us that we couldn't talk just when we felt like it. However, in a very short time, we settled down to twelve years of hard work.

The following year, we entered the second grade under Miss Verna Yoder. How we enjoyed the spelldowns she gave us each week. Then we passed to the third grade, where our teacher was Miss Joy Hooley; we all remember so well the "Sugar Creek Gang" stories she read to us. Miss Rhea Yoder, our fourth grade teacher, let us build scenes in sand tables which we proudly showed off to the other classes. In the fifth grade, we thought we were just the stuff, for we put on several little plays with the help of our teacher, Mrs. Valentine. By the time we reached the sixth grade, our class had grown so large that we had to be divided. Mr. Hunsperger and Mr. Leer took turns in teaching our two classes.

The next September, we found ourselves in junior high school. On the first day, we had trouble finding our way from class to class, but it wasn't long until we caught on. We elected officers for the first time that year. Rae Ann Fike, President; Tom Miller, Vice-President; Leroy Shetler, Secretary and Treasurer; Donnie Ferm, Reporter. Mr. Kurtz was our sponsor. We lost ten members during the year, but our class was still large with forty-nine members.

Starting off with a bang in the eighth grade, we elected Woody Immel as our sponsor; Jerry Linfor, President; Melba Miller, Vice-President; Grace Schrock, Secretary; Freddie Kauffman, Treasurer; Bob Hout, Reporter.

The next year, we excitedly entered high school with forty-two members on the roll. Our class officers were Grace Schrock, President; Roger Kindy, Vice-President; Mary Griffin, Secretary; Tom Miller, Treasurer; Rae Ann Fike, Reporter. Mr. Diener and Miss Rupel were chosen as our sponsors. Norman, Melba, and Marjorie were our S. O. S. representatives.

Twenty-seven students came back the next year to enter the Sophomore class. Marjorie Miller was elected President; Mertice Yoder, Vice-President; Melba Miller, Secretary; Bill Bradshaw, Treasurer; Joanne Plank, Reporter. Norma, Bob Hooley, and Mertice were our S. O. S. representatives. Our sponsors were Mr. Young, and Miss Yoder.

As Juniors, we had many good times selling magazines and greeting cards. Our royalty play "Cheaper By The Dozen", drew a record breaking crowd. Our class sweaters and rings came early in the year. In May, we gave the Seniors a banquet in Potawatami Inn at Pokagon State Park, Tom Miller acting as toastmaster. Our class officers were as follows: Bill Bradshaw, President; Tom Miller, Vice-President; Roger Kindy, Secretary; Joel West, Treasurer; Marjorie Miller, Reporter. Miss Shoup and Mr. Yacuk were our sponsors. Joanne, Tom, and Bill B. were S. Q. S. representatives.

We entered the Senior class with twenty-one members, adding one new member, Don Fisher, during the year. Our officers are Joel West, President; Norman Caton, Vice-President; Grace Schrock, Treasurer; Joanne Plank, Secretary; Marjorie Miller, Reporter. Miss Shoup and Mr. Yacuk are again our sponsors. Our S. O. S. members are Mertice, Dick, and Bill Bradshaw, the latter being president of the organization. We put on another successful play this year with the help of Miss Shoup, "The Heats' On". We are looking forward to the annual banquet, and our Senior trip to Washington, D. C. Then comes graduation. We all hate to leave good Old M. H. S., but we realize we no longer will be a class, just citizens who go out into the world to do our duty to God and our country.

Last Will and Testament of The Class of '52

We, the Class of 1952, hereby declare ourselves in a state of bankruptcy. Being as sane as we'll ever be, leaving the halls of M.H.S. forever. We hope the unfinished business we left will soon be done, and we do hereby declare this our last Will.

As a class, we do hereby bequeath to the faculty the following:

To Mr. Young our individual class records.
To Mr. Yacuk the ability to quiet our class at class meetings.
To Mr. Biddle our full support at future games.
To Mr. Diener all the test tubes we broke in chemistry.
To Mr. Kurtz all the corridor passes from study hall.
To Mr. Albrecht the knowledge you gave us in government.
To Mrs. Lounsbury the correct English we use.
To Mrs. Delgado the wonderful meals served in the cafeteria.
To Miss Hoover our typing abilities.
To Miss Shoup the headaches we caused you during play practice.
To Miss Yoder and Mr. Lawson our music talents,
To Mrs. Garber all the excuses you had to write for us.

As individuals, we feel we should leave some things to our loyal and trusted schoolmates. We will the following to the Junior class:

I, Bill Bradshaw, will my height to Rosalie Yoder.
I, Norman Caton, will my black hair to Bruce Gordon.
I, Carol Cummings, will my ability to cook to Rosalie Yoder.
I, Delores Ferm, will my driving ability to Joanne Hout.
I, Rae Ann Fike, will my red hair to Cecilia Wesdorp.
I, Don Fisher, will my physics book to Richard Miller.
I, Mary Griffin, will my dark skin and figure to Joyce Luke.
I, Robert Hooley, will my curly hair to Rosina Kauffman.
I, Bill Hout, will my athletic ability to Bruce Gordon.
I, Roger Kindy, will my long curly hair to Bud Stutz.
I, Kathryn Mauck, will my square dancing ability to Mary Scott.
I, Randall Mauck, will my speaking ability to Tom Kauffman.
I, Elmer Miller, will my blond hair and blue eyes to Rich Miller.
I, Marjorie Miller, will my twirling ability to Carol Vincent.
I, Tom Miller, will my build to Charles Mathers.
I, Joanne Plank, will my slim figure to Beverly Broadsworth.
I, Grace Schrock, will my blue eyes to Shirley Barnes.
I, Dick Smith, will my cheerleading ability to Ira Kauffman.
I, Darrel Steele, will my ability to go steady to Roanne Hout.
I, Joel West, will my ability to play "Murder" to Lowell Baer.
I, Mertice Yoder, will my blushing ability to Merlin Mockler.
I, Bob Hout, will my slide rule to Maurice Hooley.

Senior Class Prophecy

It is the year 1998, and we are looking in on the proud possessors of a check for $10,000. We see that the proud and happy couple is Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hout. Mrs. Hout is the former Carol Cummings. The check they just received is for the copyright on their new book, "Cheaper By The Gross" or "How To Run An Orphanage On The Lowest Possible Capital."

They immediately pack their baggage and take the bus direct from their front door to the New York Central Depot. They see that the baggage porter is no other than Darrel Steele. Darrel is working at the depot to help pay his 1967 income taxes. Darrel was given the job by the president of the C. I. O., Joel West. Darrel was given the job as a reward for helping Joel design a new type of "union suit."

They are now greeted by the engineer of the train, Norman "Never Two Accidents in the Same Week" Caton. Norman is a perfect of "A Rambling Wreck from Georgia Tech, and a Heck of an Engineer." On their way to the diner, they have to go through the hospital car. There they are astounded to see Bill Bradshaw, the winner of the Madam Curie Award for curing smokeless smoked sausage. It seems that Brady had a little accident while working on his experiments. He tried to pour a little too much zinc down the thistle tube at one time and suffered the explosive results. What surprises them most is the fact that he is suspended head down from the ceiling. It is soon understandable though when they find out that his nurse is no other than Rae Ann Fike. Rae is a graduate of St. Mary's School of Nursing. She was the only graduate to have had five years of experience as a Senior.

Upon arriving in Chicago, they decide to see a baseball game between the White Sox and the Cubs. Tom Miller is starting catcher for the Cubs and Roger is fifth string shortstop for the Sox. The owner of both ball clubs is Randall "Fireball without any Oxygen" Mauck. Mauck has the privilege of being the owner of the clubs that are in first and last place. And again today the Sox push the Cubs farther into the cellar with a 14 to 3 victory.

They now take a plane to Detroit, Michigan. The pilot of their plane is no other than Donald "Nosedive" Fisher. Don has received his license from the chairman of the ground forces of the U. S. Air Force. Why no one is able to understand, because he has had an average of $3\frac{1}{2}$ forced landings per week, and all of them have been on the top of the Wrigley Building where Miss Marjorie Miller is working as a secretary for the United Air Lines.

After a reasonable safe trip, they get off the plane at the Detroit field. There they see Bob Hooley of the Midwest Hooley Produce Company. He is just about ready to take off with another plane load of chickens that he is flying to Brazil. The cab that they take down town is driven by Elmer "The Flying Dutchman" Miller. In the next five minutes, they cover the fifty miles to the busines district in no time flat.

As they are gazing up at the skyscrapers, they notice the sign, Bill D. Hout--Body Engineer. Bill is a graduate of the Field Museum. He was the only graduate ever to graduate. On the next window, they see that the office belongs to Dick "Horticulture" Smith. Richard is a graduate of Mother Grubber's School for Common Weed Control.

It is two weeks later in the city of New York that they meet up with some more of their old fellow graduates. Joanne Plank and Delores Ferm have established a dress designing studio. They have called it, "Crank and Worm's Dresses for all the Poor, Single Dames Like Us." We hear that they are doing a Communist's business, that is, they are going in the "red."

Mary Griffin is currently being starred in the Broadway play, "The Last of the Griffins." Her ticket agent is that now highly promising millionaire, Kathryn Mauck. It seems that Katie has really made a success of the theater left her by her rich Uncle Snodgrass. Now she has succeeded in putting herself in the highest income bracket in the U. S. A.

On their way back, by means of the Great Lakes on the steamer, "The City of Grand Rapids," they find the cook is no other than Mertice Yoder. Mert is a graduate of Father Gimble's Cooking School for Homeless Housewives."

As they reach home, they take the mail out of their box and find a letter from the only member that they have been unable to contact, Grace Schrock. It seems that Grace has graduated from Manchester as a teacher of Sir Isaac Guizmo's theory of light being found in total darkness. She is currently employed as a teacher right here in the good old home state of Indiana. Her address is: Miss Grace Schrock

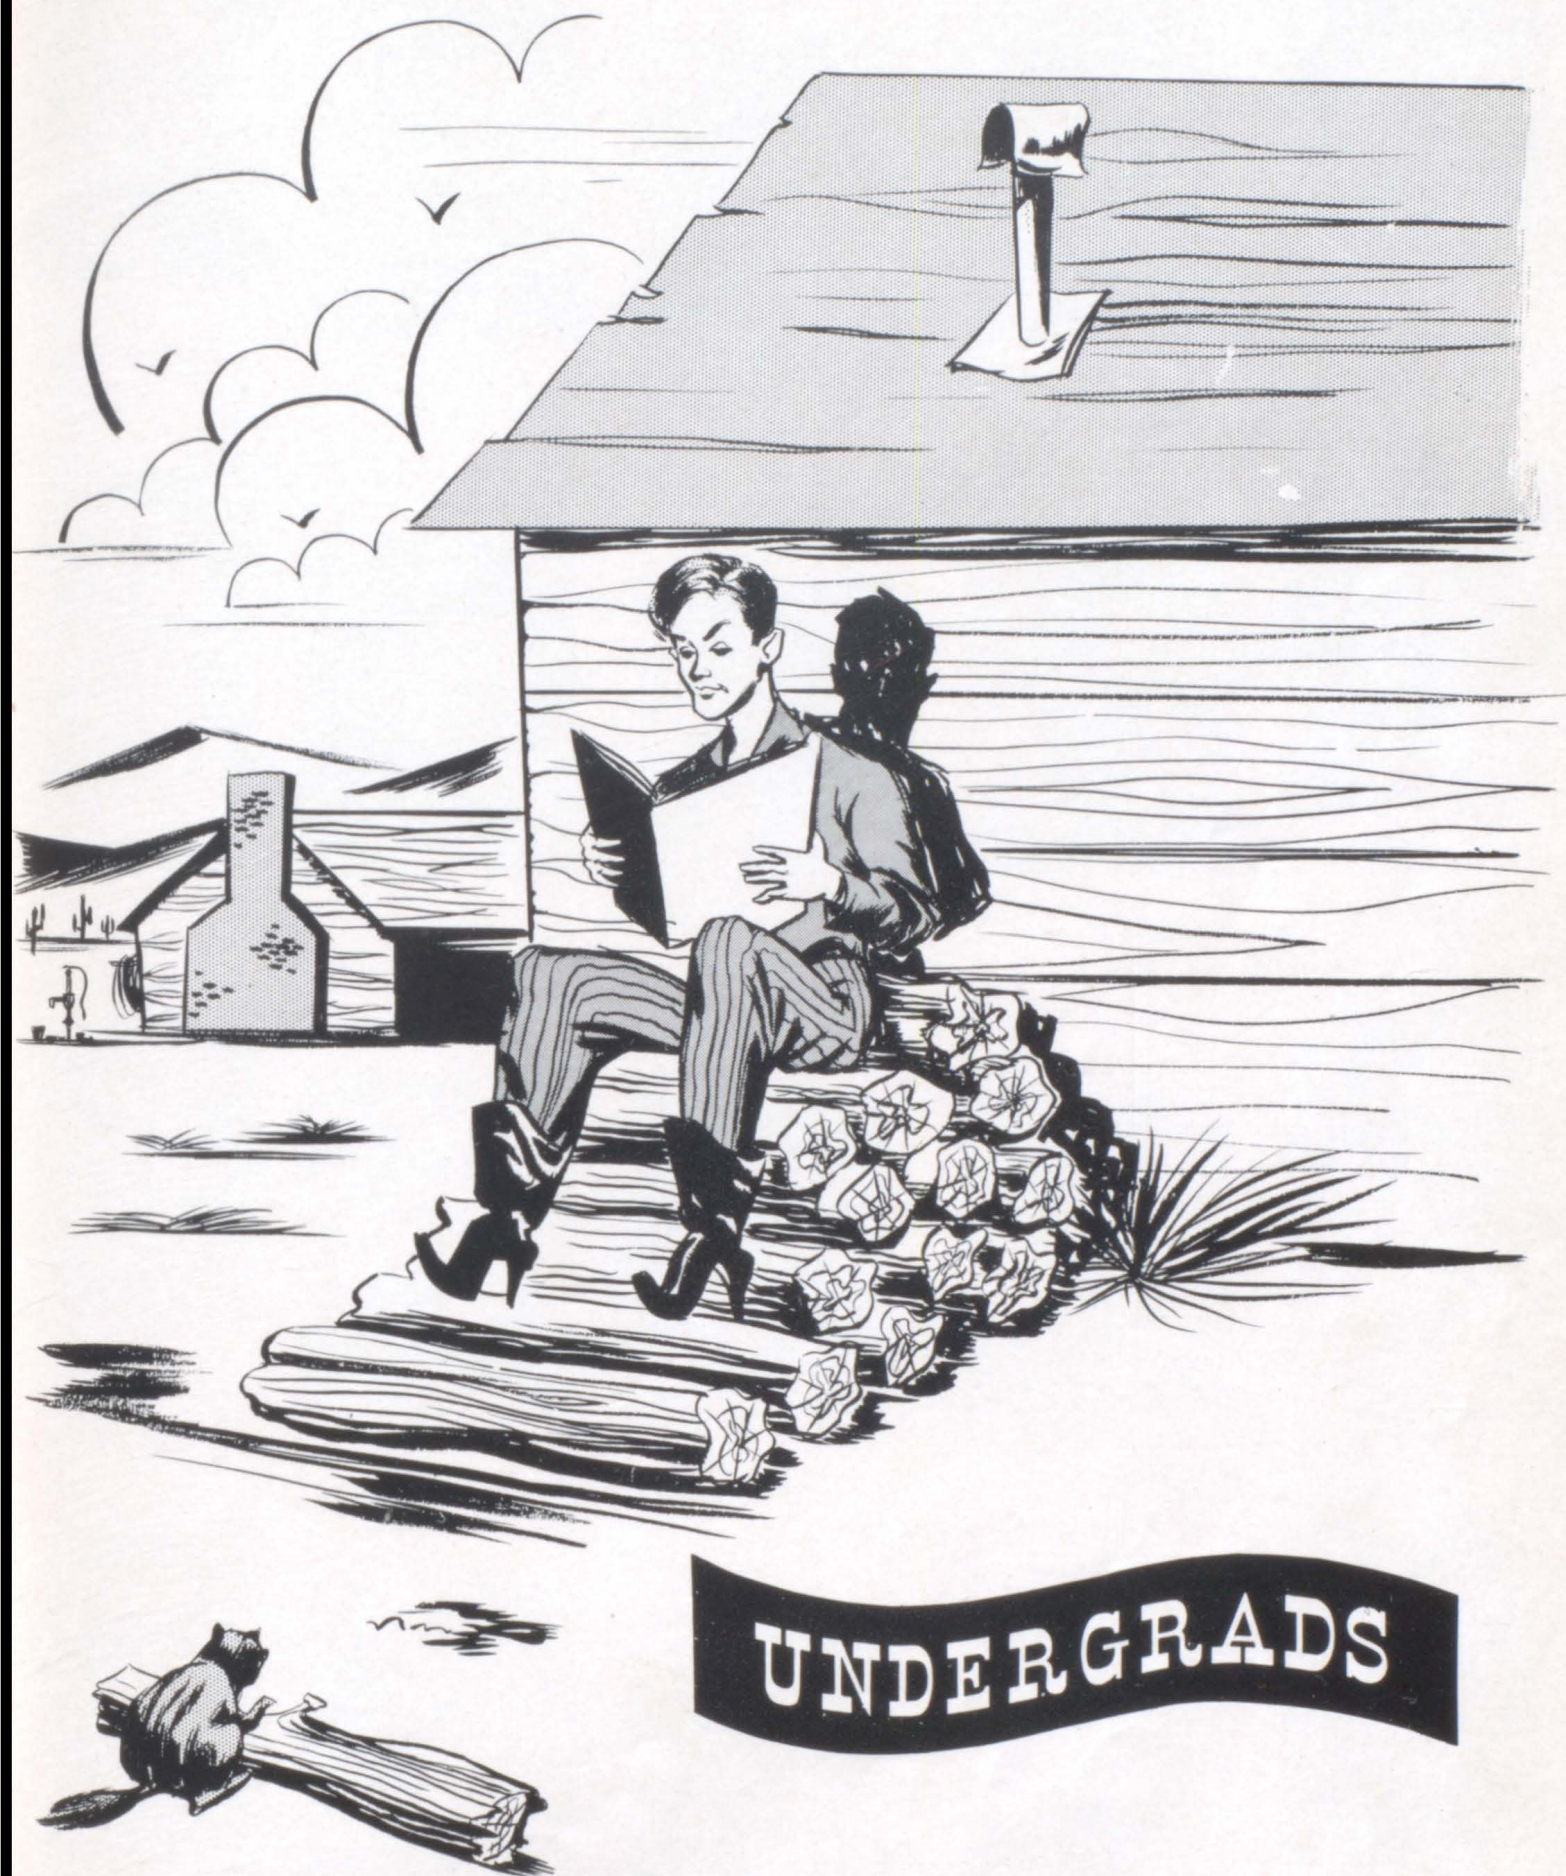

R. R. 1

Yorktown, Indiana

Now the Houts have settled down to taking care of their orphanage again, what say we leave them in the happy quietness of the kindergarten room until they write another book for $10,000? O.K.?

Until then, I remain yours truly,

Bill Bradshaw

7th Grade History

There were forty children who started their first year of school in September, 1945 with Mrs. Bushong as their teacher. Our second and third grade teachers were Miss Valentine and Miss Hooley. In the fourth grade, we had Miss Miller for our teacher. The class was divided and the others had Mrs. Bontrager. We studied the Far East and gave a tea party for our mothers. Our fifth and sixth grade teachers were Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Thiessen. We were still divided. We finally entered Junior High. We elected Nancy Hout, President; Jake Shetler, Vice-President; Mary Lou Lehman, Secretary; Lester Bontrager, Treasurer; Tommy Benner, Reporter; and Mrs. Lounsbury for our sponsor.

TOM MILLER

Tom, who has played regular guard on the Middie team for the past four seasons, is one of the outstanding players in Elkhart County. He stands about 6 feet and weighs about 230 pounds. Tom was chosen on the all County Team for the past three seasons. He certainly will be missed and hard to replace on the squad.

RANDALL MAUCK

Randy, who played center for the Middies the past year, was very effective and accurate in any shot he took from any place on the floor. Randal was one of the team's outstanding rebounders. Randall, one of the taller boys will leave a place which will be hard to fill.

ROGER KINDY

Roger, who stands but five feet and eight inches tall, was switched from his familiar guard spot to forward, found the range, and was very dangerous from far out on the floor. Roger is a Senior, and he will be missed immensely. Rog will always be known for his ability to hit those famous one hand shots.

BOB HOOLEY

Bob, a Senior who saw considerable action, was a player who could come into a game, start and tear right into it. His ability to do this helped the Middies in several tight spots.

TOM KAUFFMAN

Tom, a Junior who played some outstanding basketball for the Middlebury Middies, was one of the county's trickiest forwards, and was of great aid to the Middies in many ballgames. Tom will be back to spark the Middies again next year.

RICH MILLER

Rich, the shortest and fastest man on the squad, although not a regular, was a very capable sub to replace anyone on the team. Rich is a Junior. He also will be back next year.

MERLIN MOCKLER

Merlin, a Junior guard who was also a mainstay in the lineup, was very accurate on his shot from behind the foul lane, and also was a very capable rebounder. Mert will also be back next year.

LOWELL BAER

Lowell, who saw limited action, was very capable of playing good ball when called upon to come in and replace someone. Lowell is expected to develop into one of the Middies' mainstays next year.

GEORGE TRUMP

George, the tallest man on the squad, and who also is a Sophomore, played varsity ball at the last of the year, and showed promise of becoming one of the Middies best ball players next year.

GLADDEN SCHROCK

Gladden, an excellent two handed shooter who is only a Sophomore, played many noteworthy games for the Midshipmen. Gladden is expected to show two more successful years of basketball.

Gold! No Fooling!!

“The Heat’s On”

This unusual mystery comedy was presented by the Seniors on the 12th and 13th of October, 1951. It was directed by Miss Shoup and the business manager was Mr. Yacuk.

A lust for gold, the return of a man who had been dead for seven years, and a surprise ending concluded the joke-filled performance.

The cast was as follows:

Betty Evans	Joanne Plank
B. B. Hailey	Dick Smith

Cast of “Cheaper By The Dozen”

"Cheaper By The Dozen"

This comedy, the first high royalty play given in our school, drew a record breaking crowd and earned wonderful comments. It was presented with the aid of Miss Shoup and Mr. Yacuk on the evenings of April 20, and 21, 1951. The cast consisted of the following characters:

*John Gorden was a member of the eighth grade class at Middlebury.

Dad, who is a time saving economist, has complete control over his family. He enforces the rules from "taking a bath in the time it takes to change a record" to the wearing of long, black, cotton stockings. Everything moves along smoothly, until Anne gets the bright idea of wearing teddies and silk stockings. Of course, Dad blows up at the idea but is finally calmed down by Mother, a gracious woman who also is a psychologist. There is quite an uproar when Anne unintentionally cheats on an exam which is caused, according to Dad, by the boy she has been dating. It's all straightened out and Dad leaves for a Management Conference in Europe, leaving Mother chairman of the family council.

Junior-Senior Banquet

On the evening of May 11, 1951, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Pokagan State Park, near Angola, Indiana. The theme which was "Colonial Days" was carried throughout the program.
